SHARING

Situated in the heart of Cape Town, the Queen Victoria Hotel welcomes guests to experience the very essence of distinguished luxury, where classic elegance meets contemporary design throughout their 35 rooms. Its prime location in a quiet, historic precinct near to the V&A Waterfront allows for a serene city escape as well as convenient access to a range of outstanding amenities.

Motswari Private Game Reserve stretches out over 150 square kilometres located within the Timbavati and Umbabat Private Nature Reserve, bordering the Kruger National Park. It has been in existence for over four decades and its friendly staff members are intrinsic to its success. Great emphasis is placed on personal attention, ensuring that each guest instantly feels at home in this stunning setting. Motswari means “to conserve and protect” in the african language of Tswana and that is what the reserve aims to do. A total of 15 en-suite bungalows make up the Main Camp.

Highlights of this trip include:

Private welcome function at the Queen Victoria Hotel Cape Town, with live entertainment from dynamic South African musical duo - Acoustic Element.

Full Day Cape Peninsula tour - Cape Point is a spectacular sight, covered in endemic fynbos and home to breathtaking bays, beaches and rolling green hills and valleys, but an undoubted highlight of this tour is a visit to the penguins of Boulders Beach.

Full Day tour to the Cape Winelands for some wine pairing experiences, as well as a picnic lunch on the lawns of historic Boschendal Estate.

Farewell African Dinner at Gold Restaurant with a 14-course African Tasting Menu and Interactive Drumming.

Morning and afternoon open-air game drives with good chances of seeing the members of the Big 5 - lion, leopard, buffalo, elephant and rhino. Timbavati and Umbabat Private Nature Reserve's 18 000 hectares are unspoilt, showcasing the finest of Africa's natural environment.

Enjoy a variety of dinner experiences such as a Boma welcome dinner and a bush dinner under the African sky on the last night. Dining at Motswari Private Game Reserve is a unique African experience, with a hint of fine dining flair. Meals are accompanied by an award-winning selection of Southern African wines.
